RECONCILIATION OF FRENCH TONNAGE DEMANDS STUM-BLING BLOCK AGREEMENT

Dwight W. Morrow, member of the American delegation, went into conference this morning with Dino onference this morning with Dino Grandi, chief of the Italian delegation. The meeting was at Mr. Morrow's hotel.

One of the first developments of the property week it is understood.

of next week, it is understood, probably will be the issuance of an Italian statement outlining Rome's naval requirements. It was said this statement would again present Italy's desire for a radical reduction of armaments, but at the same time will make clear.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—(P)—The five power naval conference today was squarely up against what had been forseen from the first as one of its most difficult problems, reconcili-ation of French naval demands ation of French naval demands with what the other powers thought a reasonable French figure.

The situation was complicated considerably by development of an internal political crisis in the French parliament where important social legislation was up for a total. The government's position a vote. The government's position already was strained on this account; any retreating at London might easily prove embarrassing for Premier Tardieu, who yesterday went back to Paris to meet his capital.

There were reports in some quar-ters that in a conference yesterday with Colonel Stimson and Premier 'MacDonald, Premier Tardjeu intimated the French demands for a total tonnage of 724,000 could be reduced if France's parliament could be talked into compromising.

There was some talk of a possithat France and Italy should remain recalcitrant, but this was met generally by the statement the neither the American senate nor the British parliament would refer the the trees of the property of the statement of the British parliament would be the statement of the statement ratify any such agreement. A four power agreement, if Italy should remain outside the fold, it was considered, would have more chance of success, since it was not believed Italy would actually exert its right to build up to the French navy.

The conference has nearly rounded out its fourth week, showing these principal results: A general agreement to "humanize" submarines, and virtual acceptance of a compromise plan for measuring "global" fleet tonnage and tonnage by categories. Above all some observers stressed, there has been a growth of the spirit of concilation.

GREAT BRITAIN AND UNITED STATES ARE OPPOSING REQUEST

SOMETHING OF SENSATION SPRUNG IN HIGH FIGURE DEMANDED BY FRANCE

By DE WITT MACKENZIE Associated Press tSaff Writer LONDON, Feb. 14.—(1)—The Unitcd States and Great Britain got into action today to try to persuade France to lower her sensational claim for 724,000 tons of naval craft, a figure which would involve her building 240,000 tons in the next

ive years.

Early in the forenoon Premier MacDonald, Secretary Stimson, Ambassador Morrow and Senator Robinson, met with Premier Tar-dieu and M. Briand and M. Marriner at the house of commons and closeted themselves for a confer-

France's figures-issued last eve rance's ngures—issued last eve-ning—brought an unfavorable re-action from every other delegation. Indeed the total created something akin to consternation, and the delegates believed they have at least one month of intense worry cut out for them in reaching a so-cut out for them in reaching a solution to this problem.

It was understood from well informed sources that it was hoped to persuade France to reduce her total to something like 550,000 tons.

Italy Asks Parity

Since Italy demands parity with France, there seemed nothing for Dino Grandi, Italian foreign minister, to do but to enter a claim for similar tonnage. The opinion was expressed in conference circles, however, that Grandi would hold his hand for the present and await developments, since Italy already has indicated she neither wants nor approves such a big navy.

It was hoped that when these total to the specifically in the second state of the second secon questions were answered it would be possible to arrive at lower fig-ures. It has been said that in the case of Great Britain her cruiser total was cut from 70 to 50 when this analytical method of reasoning was applied.

Some important bargaining points for use in securing a reduction of the total also exist. For instance, Great Britain once conceded to France that trained reserves should not be counted in reckoning the strengths of armies of vari-WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. ous countries. AUSTIN, Feb. 15 .- (P)- Conference committees were busy today rying to get the two houses of the egislature together on penitentiary centralization and reformation and n method of changing the fee sys-tem laws—the two subjects that prompted Governor Moody to call he special session which will end

Tuesday.

The bill of Rep. Phil Sanders of Nacogdoches, proposing a tax of $1 per ton on sulphur, had passed the house and in the senate, faced an effort to enact it during the brief unused period of the session.
Other revenue-raising measures asked by Governor Moody in order to create funds from which to appropriate approximately $3,000,-000 asked for emergency purposes by the state educational and elec-mosynary institutions and depart-ments had been abandoned in the house because of lack of time. However, their authors said they would revive them should Governor Moody call another special session to follow this one. These included a stiff tax on chain stores. Sulphur Tax

The sulphur tax would produce between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000 annually for a forty year period. Sanders claimed. It would fall almost entirely upon two companies, mining sulphur in Matogarda and Brazoria counties and producing nouse because of lack of Brazoria counties and producing most of the world's supply.

An amendment put on by Rep.

T. N. Mauritz of Banado provided that after July 1, 1931, revenue from the sulphur tax should be applied to reduction of the ad va-lorem tax rate. The penitentiary conference com-mittee resumed its labor in what many believed a hopeless task of compromising views of the two branches on legislation reorganizing and renovating the system. The senate group was holding out for a new central plant with industrial equipment near Austin and the house conferees were committed against abandoning any of the ex-isting properties. The house was willing to rehabilitate but not remove.

Fee Bill Outlook Good The outlook for some kind of a The outlook for some kind of a fee, bill was more encouraging. There was not a great deal of difference between the two houses. The house had passed a draft written by Rep. R. M. Hubbard of New Boston directing that officers would be accountable for all fees collected and fixing the maximum carnings on a graduated scale accountable for all fees collected and fixing the maximum carnings on a graduated scale accountable for all fees collected and fixing the maximum carnings on a graduated scale accountable for all fees the feet of earnings on a graduated scale, ac-

The senate adopted a revised bill by Senator Pink Parrish of Lubbock proposing a flat maximum of $12,500 annually regardless of size of county, and providing merely that the officers should keep a record of fees of office. ecord of fees of office.

Brooks had suggested sending the case to Williamson country.

SIGNED STATEMENT GIVES DETAILS OF CHILD'S MURDER

MELVIN HORST, WOOSTER, OHIO, CHILD SLAIN DAY HE DISAPPEARED

WOOSTER, Ohio, Feb. 14. (P)—Four-year-old Melvin Horst, hunted since he disappeared nearly 14 months ago, was slain the day he disappeared by one of two men during a drinking party, according to signed statements attributed to them by Special Assistant Prosecutor Walter J. Mougey.

Mougey announced today that Earl Conald, 42-year-old former railroad brakeman, and Charles Hanna of Wooster, had made sworn statements in which each declared the other killed the child. Their alleged revelations came Their alleged revelations came after they had been questioned almost continuously since Wednesday morning. They were arrested as the result of a story told by Junior,

10-year-old son of Charles Hanna, Hanna signed a statement in which he said Conald coaxed the Horst boy into an automobile in a garage near the Conald home and slew him, Mougey said.

Conald declared it was Hanna who put the boy in the car and then cried: "My God! I believe I've killed him.' Neither told what had become of the boy, Mougey said, Conald con-fessing he had been "drinking too much" to remember.

Search for Body.

A desperate search for the body was under way today in order that murder charges might be filed against both men, the assistant presecutor announced.

In the event the body was not found, Mougey prepared to file either manslaughter or child stealing charges, Mougey said he had not established a motive. At first a bootlegging feud had been considered as the possible background, but the assistant prosecutor pointed out that Conald's liquor activities were on too small a scale.

were on too small a scale.

Conald and Hanna agreed for the most part in the details of their stories except when it came to naming the child slayer. Their statements purported to show they had driven around, had a "few drinks" and finally came to the garage back of the home of Frank

Frey.

Each Blames Other.

They took some more drinks in the garage, during which Melvin appeared. Both agreed Melvin was whisked into the automobile and ether choked or beaten to death, but each laid the blame on the other.

the other.

Their accounts were equally vague as to what happened to the boy's body, although they told of driving around and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Horst, parents of the missing child, to throw suspcion elsewhere, according to Mougey.

By their accounts, they visited

By their accounts, they visited the Horst home at about the time the entire village, aroused by the pealing of bells, was turning out to begin the search that lasted until Rumor after rumor as to the disappearance of the child was checked to no avail. It was the continued questioning of Junior that led to the arrest of Hanna and Conald. The playmate of Melvin finally asserted he had seen vin finally asserted he had seen the missing boy in the garage named in the statements of his father and Conald. He had been forced to keep his knowledge se-

RIGHT-OF-WAY FOR HIGHWAY FOURTEEN IS BEING SECURED

Clay Nash, county judge fo Navarro county; J. A. Alger, resident state highway engineer; and County Commissioners Jack Megarity and D. D. Sawyer spent Friday in the vicinity of Richland procuring right-of-ways for State Highway No, 14 between Richland and the Navarro-Freestone county line near Wortham.

No. 14 between Richland and the Navarro-Freestone county line near Wortham.

Judge Nash stated Saturday morning that the work on the bridge and trestle spanning Richland creek on Federal Highway No. 75 had been practically completed and that traffic would be diverted over the bridge within the next few days. Judge Nash stated that the opening of this stretch to traffic would give motorists using the road a high dump crossing the Richland creek bottoms which will not overflow. Traffic has been going over the highway dump on sides of the bottom for some time, it was stated.

It is expected that the contract for the paving of National Highway 75 from a point about two miles south of Corsicana to the Navarro-Freestone county line between Richland and Streetman will be awarded by the State Highway department within the near future.

Approval was regarded as a distinct possibility as there were indications several dry members were in favor of the investigation, including Chairman Norris of Nebrascluding Chairman Norris of Nebraska, and Senator Borah of Idaho.

The inquiry was proposed in a resolution introduced by Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, who voted for prohibition in his own state ten years ago, but believes enforcement has been a failure.

The measure called for an investigation as to whether it was possible to enforce the anti-liquor statutes. It was probable, however, that it would be amended to provide for an inquiry as to whether the dry laws have been enforced. Whatever action is ultimately taken by the committee, the senate must vote on the resolution. It is expected to be one of the first issues to come up, when the tariff bill is out of the way and the senate starts upon its long awaited probibition deater.

Male Godivas Feature Blonde Girl's Holdups

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—(?)— The Messrs. Godiva are becoming regular customers at the police staular customers at the police station.

A blonde girl and a male companion are back of it all. They employ their evenings robbing taxicab drivers, taking not only the drivers' money, but their trousers as well. The idea is to prevent immediate pursuit, for one must go a long way before finding a taxicah driver who will prance forth into the glare of street lights and the bite of night without his clothes.

It was the blonde herself who sounded the Godiya note. After Roy Robbins, cab driver, had been robbed and forced to disrobe, tossing his trousers and shoes out to the robbers, the young woman called back, "Goodbye, Mister Godlya?"

Robbins drove to the nearest police station. He was No. 20 in the list of victims of such robberies within a fortnight.

He stood before the desk sergeant, and his teeth chattered. "Something terrible—" he began. The sergeant spoke wearily, "Yes, I know," he said.. "The blonde. Gimme your name, address and how much you lost."

By far the most exciting and hard fought game of the tournament was recled off between the Rural Shade and Rice quints in the semi-finals. The boys from the extreme castern portion of the county gave the champion Bulldog cagers one of the most gruelling agers one of the most gruelling ghts before bowing 14-11 in two extra periods.

The game was most unusual, in the fact that the close guarding tactics adopted by both teams kept front line men at bay during the first half, the scoring standing exactly nothing all at the half way post. Matching point for point during the final half, the score tacted at $ ell when the regulation stood at 8 all when the regulation period of time expired, and in the first entra-period, each feam sank a field goal to tie at 16 all.

The Rural Shade cagers showed a classy brand of basketball during the tournament and proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that the second team in the county was to be found in the eastern portion of

Roaming the Realm of County Sports
By DELMORE OLSEN.

As was expected, the Rice Bulldogs won the class B title and the Corsicana high school class A in the annual Navarro County University of Texas Interscholastic league basketball tournament held last week-end on the local Y court. Unexpected strength was shown by Zion's Rest, Providence and Rurai Shade in the tournament.

Moore, Navarro; Lee Medford, Rice; Trent, Rurai Shade; and Dubose, Currie.

In the selection of the first team, there seems to be little opposition for four places, that of J. W. Medford, Curington, Estes and Miles, In the other forwards, a number of players were taken into conseder.

The rise of Providence to the post of finalist and the Zion's Rest cagers to semi-finalists furnished the surprises for the otherwise very the surprises for the otherwise very orderly tournament. Providence showed unexpected scoring strength by downing the Mt. Nebo, Bryan and Zlon's Rest quints to carn the right to meet Rice in the finals. Zion's Rest played only two games during the tournament winning over Union High school 31-7 and losing to Providence, 24-18 in the semi-ifnal go.

Shade in the tournament.

If comparative scores can be taken as a standard, the Rice team is slightly better than Rural Shade which is the second best team in the county, despite the fact that it lost in the semi-finals, Providence could be rated third, with Mildred and Zion's Rest running close for Rural Shade and Rice staged one of the prettiest battles in some funds. It was a rather unusual contest, with both teams reputed to be high scoring machines held scoreless in the first balf. Both teams fought on even terms in the final half and in the first overtime period but in the final extra-period Rice forged ahead into the county scoreless in the first half. Both teams fought on even terms in the final half and in the first overtime period but in the final extra-period Rice forged ahead into the county championship when J. W. Medford

Zion's Rest, coached by Elmer Yarbrough, showed great improve-ment over the performance in the nvitation tournament and was the wark horse in the tournament win-ning over Union High school in im-pressive fashion and fighting the Providence cagers to a "fare ye Providence cagers to a "fare ye well" in the semi-final contest before losing 24-18. At one time in the third period, the defending champions were but two points ahead of Zion's Rest, but in the by the North Corsicana lads in an effort to ovehaul the Providence team began to tell, and Providence points made in that quarter.

After the shouting and fighting dies down, there remains only two things for basketball teams in the county to do, one is to recount tales of the various contests played and to select all county teams.

Following are the five players we believe showed up best during the tournament: J. W. Medford, Rice: F. Burnett, Mildred, for-wards; Curington, Rural Shade, center; Miles, Rice, and Estes, Providence, guards,

Second team: Franks, Zion's Rest; Gaines, Providence; forwards; Dosser, Bryan, center; Henderson, Rural Shade, and Gorman, Bryan, guards. Honorable mention to Hobbs, Rice; Owens, Emhouse; Gardner, Blöoming Grove; J. Burnett, Mildred! Allen, Emhouse;

Gorman, selected at the other guard post, is a brilliant floor man and can be used to advantage by any team in the county as the strictly defensive guard. He has the knack of blocking shots at the goal without penalty and is a sure passer.

In fact all players selected on both first and second teams can handle the ball like nobody's business and we believe the composite selections if gathered together un-der one coach would give any team in Central Texas a fight for county,

So much for all-county selections, from a defensive standpoint, the Rural Shade quint looks like the class of the field, with Rice second

We do not think that there is a question about the selection of Curington as all county center. With the addition of the clongated center, the Rural Shade quint became a formidable aggregation and surprised everybody with the brillient play during the tournament. We believe that Curington is the "spark plug" of the East Navarro county quint.

Since the change in basketball making it a free scoring game, the qualifications for players in different positions have radically changed, and as a result, the guards on a team must be good shots as well as goal tenders, the same goes for the forwards and center, they must the forwards and center, they must be able to play guard almost as good as forward. In other words, the team winning games today must have five men fully capable of hitting the goal from any position and be in the right spot at the right time to intercept and block passes made by the opposition. made by the opposition.

In making the all county selections we have taken all these things into consideration, and we submit the above five men as the best in the county. Here's the Difference In a Used Car Bearing the Red Tag "with an OK that Counts"

Every car that is traded to us on the purchase of a new Chevrolet Six is carefully inspected by factory trained mechanics and is thoroughly reconditioned, where needed, before being offered for sale.

Only Genuine Chevrolet Parts are used to replace worn parts, and only Genuine DuPont Duco is used to refinish cars needing new paint.

All Batteries on our Used Cars are tested and guaranteed for a period of ninety days.

In the sale of a used car it is our earnest desire to give the purchaser full measure of value and we assure you of the same interest and consideration in the purchase of a used car from us as in the purchase of a new Chevrolet Six.

We believe that our strict adherence to above policy is responsible for the fact that we sold 673 Used Cars during the year of 1929.

TT is easy to abuse our golden life-given body, but Nature has a way of signaling danger. If heeded, graver troubles may be avoided. That tired, exhausted feeling, lack of appetite, aches and pains, flabby flesh, skin troubles—all speak of a body weakness—a lack of the normal count of red-blood-cells.

Every normal person's blood should contain about 5,000,000 red corpuscles to the cubic millimeter—those vitalizing, tiny red-cells which give blood its color and are carriers of nourishment to every part of the body. It is dangerous to let the red blood count remain below normal.

With an increase in the red-blood-cells, you will be on the right road to Health. This is Nature's way to body power and to clear skin. Naturally, with your strength restored, it is easier to fight disease and infection; to enjoy your food and to sleep soundly. When firm flesh takes the place of that which was once flabby, you will feel strong—your nerves will become steady—more happiness and friends will follow.

S.S.S. has been a blessing to millions of people. It helps Nature increase the red-blood-cells. It promotes healthy body building. It is time-tested and has a successful record of over 100 years back of it.

You owe it to yourself to try S.S.S. It is easily assimilated. Pleasant to take. It is on sale at all drug stores in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical. © 8.8.8. Ca.

When a Friend or Relative Acts as Executor-Trustee

Acting as executor and trustee is a burdensome and responsible task for an individual. Why ask a friend or relative to assume such a burden?

To be able to act as an appraiser—to deal with real estate intelligently-to control investments-to be an estate expert -a tax specialist and an accountant-all in one-are qualities you can hardly expect to find in the same person.

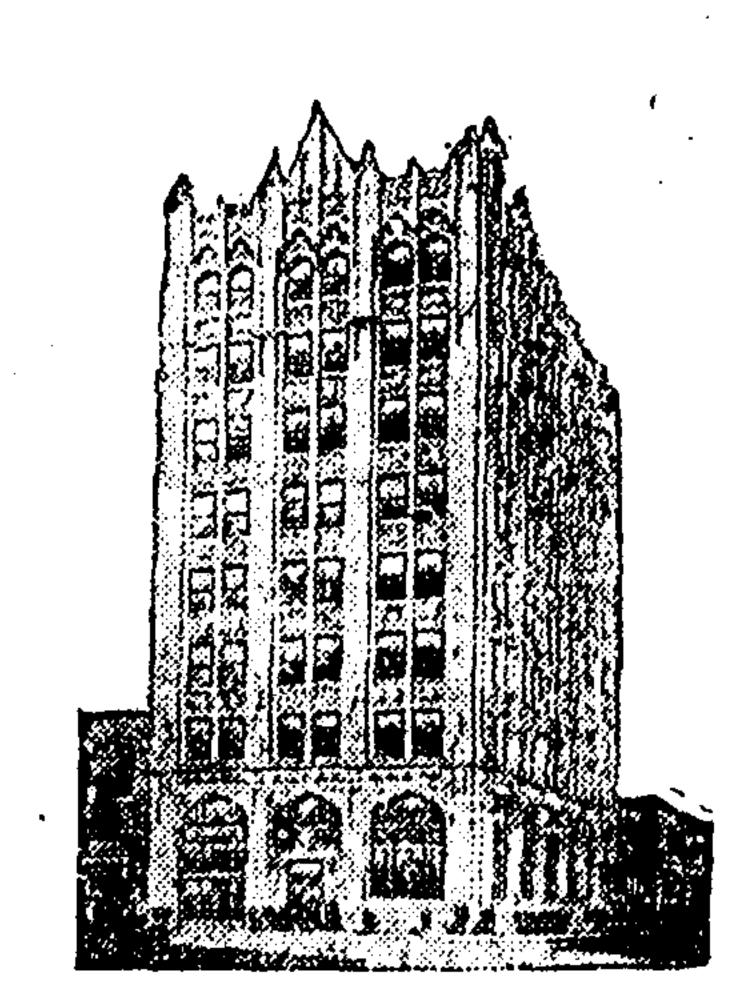

For the average individual such responsibilities either entail a great amount of personal effort and work-or involve extra expense in engaging experts. Otherwise the estate suffers through lack of competent administration.

But, in the hands of this Bank such matters are handled safely, promptly, and efficiently.

MARKET CONTINUED TO SELL OFF MONDAY IN EARLY TRADING

LITTLE IN NEWS THAT WOULD TEND TO INFLUENCE PRICE MOVEMENTS

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.-(P)- The stock market continued to sell off at the opening today, as the wave of liquidation which swept into the market Saturday appeared to have carried over the week-end. U. S. carried over the week-end. U. S. Steel lost 3-4 of a point, and Americanic Can dropped 2 points. Firm and Gillette each lost 1 point. Pennsylvania raliroad, International Nickel, Gold Dust, Johns Man-ville, and Columbia Graphophone sagged 1-4 to 1-2. Standard of N. J., dost 1-2 point in a transaction of 7,500 shares. National Dairy of 7,500 shares. National Dairy was a strong spot, moving up 3-4.

With the exception of some gaso-line price cuts in the middle west, there was little in the news to influence the price movement.

A sprinkling of stocks moved against the general downward trend in early trading. Simmons, under "bear" pressure for a couple of weeks, rallied nearly 2 points on short covering. National Air short covering. National Air Transport was heavily bought, ris-ing 1 5-8 points in the first half Goodycar Rubber, Worthington pump, and Air Reduction sold down prints. Among many issues to lose a point or more were Westinghouse Electric, Sears Roebuck, American Water Works, and Para-

New York Cotton Steady.

New York Cotton Steady.

NEW YORK. Feb. 17.—(49)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 11 to 16 points in response to easier cables and sold about 15 to 18 points net lower by the end of the first half hour under liquidation, while there appered to be some Wall street and local selling. This was probably promoted by the lower opening of the wheat market. Buying was comparatively limited after the covering of last week, although there was a moderate demand from the trade on the decline to 15.00 for May and 16.27 for October.

The market cased later. There was some trade buying, but it was in limited volume, and the market otherwise appeared to be without much support. Selling became fairly active as prices worked lower, and appeared to be promoted by reports of the casier wheat and stock markets. May sold off to 15.75 and October to 16.12 making not declines of 30 to 33 points but there was a little better demand at these figures and the volume of business tapered off with prices showing rallies of a few points from the lowest at midday.

This was due mainly to the unexpected illness of Premier Tardieu of France, which came at a critical moment in the consideration of France's naval claims and in the midst of the efforts of the United States and Great Britain as conciliators to bring France and Italy together in their parity dispute. TEE ASKS DEMOCRATIC BOLTERS JOIN PARTY

> DALLAS, Feb. 15.—(AP) Members of the state republican executive committee met here today to urge Texas democrats who deserted the democratic presidential nominee to years ago to come into the republican ranks permanently.

The meeting was an echo of the session of the state democratic executive committee two weeks ago at which that group voted to welcome as voters in the 1930 primary those persons who supported Herrical Processing the supported Herrical Processing was supported Herrical Processing with supported Herrical Processing was supported Herrical Processing with supported Herrical Processing Was supported He those persons who supported Her bert Hoover in 1928 but to bar them as candidates.
R. B. Creager, republican nation al committeeman, took the lead in drafting the resolution for representation at the executive committee session this afternoon. Creager predicted it would be adopted with-

The resolution condemned the action of the executive committee penalizing democrats for exercising their "right of consclence" in the 1928 presidential balloting and invited the "bolters" to join hands with the republican forces this

Need For Division

The resolution also referred to the "general unsatisfactory condition of the government of Texas for years past" and to the "recognized need" in Texas for two well-balanced parties. While the call of the meeting did not outline its purpose, it was taken for granted that the adoption of the resolution would be the meet important acwould be the most important ac-tion. The committee planned to feel out the republican sentiment in the various sections of the state and to lay plans for this year's campaign.

One of the purposes of the ses-campaign.

One of the purposes of the session was to pass appropriate resolutions in memory of the late Leonard Withington of Fort Worth, former director of organization. A successor to Withington was not expected to be named until later.

Waiting on Other Side
Creager empahized that the question of candidates in this year's election was not to be discussed. "We are awaiting developments on the other side," he said.

Among those here were Eugene Noite of Seguin, state chairman; Orville Bullington, Wichita Falls, vice chairman; T. P. Lee of Houston, Hugh Exim of Amarillo, B. J. Peasley of Tyler, J. Allen Myers of Bryan, Gerald Fitzgerald of Morrow, Heber Page of Dallas, C. O. Harris of San Angelo and L. J. Benkenstein of Beaumont.

An atmosphere of optimism prevailed as the republican leaders caucused. They declared they thought the G. O. P. more powerful in Texas than ever before because of the vote poiled by President Hoover in 1928 and because they believed the rift in the democratic party permanent.

they believed the rift in the demo-cratic party permanent.
South No Longer Democratic
"Southern democrats might as well face the issue squarely," Che-ager said. "The South is no long-er in the donkey's saddle. The democratic party is controlled by the northern, wet, Tammany crowd, largely dominated by foreigners. The difference between this group and the Southern democracy are The difference between this group'

Creager was bitter in his denunclation of the democratic executive committee. "It is inconceivable that self-respecting men and followed their conscience."

Leading republicans made it clear there would be no period of penance or probation for the former democrats who wished to change their affiliations. "We not only will suffer them to enter, but we beg them to do so," they said. "We need them, not only as voters, but as leaders. We ask them to help formulate our policies."

Creager pointed to Builington, a democrat eleven years ago. "Builington decided to join with us, and he has become one of our outstand ing leaders in Texas," the national committeeman said.

First Loans Made to West Texas Growers During Past Weeks

UVALDE, Feb. 14.—(P)—The long-sought federal relief for mohair producers of the United States be-came a reality this week, according to Roy J. Davenport of Uvalde, president of the American Mohair Producers' cooperative Marketing Producers' cooperative Marketing corporation, who announced that first loans had been made to pro-ducers here in the form of preshearing advances.

The corporation, which has head-quarters here, now has around 2,-000,000 pounds of mohair and 1,000,-000 pounds of wool pledged it, Davenport said. Pre-shearing advances were made at the rate of 50c a head of goats with six months' growth of mohair and $1 a head for those with 12 months' growth.

Freestone Finals Be Played Tuesday

TEAGUE, Feb. 17. —(SP)— According to L. E. Pevy, director of athletics for Freestone county, the finals in boys' basketball toward determining the county champion-ship will be played at the high school gym Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. The two teams playing off the finals are Fairfield and Wortham. Each team has defeated the other once. Wortham defeated Fairfield 22 to 21, while Fairfield defeated Wortham 23 to 10. Any team has to be defeated twice to out of the race. Both Wortham and Fairfield have strong cage teams, and the outcome of the game is hanging in Wortham and Fairfield the balance.

Dearest Folks:
Vivian and I left Dallas Thursday at 2:20. We met some friends there Thursday morning who took us to lunch and put us on tht train and wished us happy voyagc. We were riding the Katy en route to St. Louis and we noted several be-derbied and be-spatted individuals on our Pullman, obviously natives of the East.

tives of the East.

We arrived in St. Louis at 8:30 Friday morning. Were rushed in to find our train. Our red cap located our gate for us—the gate-keeper and ticket puncher demanded $4.80 extra fare for riding a 24-hour train to New York. This detail had been overlooked by the Dallas ticket office. We soon adjusted this, though cancelled our reservation on the 24-hour train (we were not in that big a hurry) and got another on the 9:10 train, which arrived in the big city Saturday at 2:10. urday at 2:10.

All settled on the Pennsylvania, we left St. Louis, crossed the Father of Waters via a huge bridge which blocked most of our view of which blocked most of our view of this majestic stream. I failed to mention that when we awoke Friday morning about 7 o'clock, in Missouri, of course, we saw a white world of snow, ice and frozen rivers. We never saw the open ground any more. ground any more.

We crossed Illinois, Indiana and a part of Ohio Friday, crossing, besides the Mississippi, the Wa-bash and several other minor streams—completely frozen over, and passed through Indianapolis and Columbus. We passed through Pittsburgh early Saturday morn-ing (about 3 o'clock) and reached Harrisburg about 9 o'clock. We had a short stop in Philadelphia about noon. We were in the state of Pennsylvania all day Saturday, until about 1 o'clock, when we reached Trenton, New Jersey. The farm houses were all huge build-ings—built of stone and sometimes three stories high with extra attics—perfectly huge barns, always with rock foundations. All day Friday and Saturday we saw icicles—huge, great, gorgeous iccles, which hung in thick fringes half way from the caves of houses to the ground. We agreed that they certainly believe in "bigger, better certainly believe in "bigger, better icicles" up here.

Crossing Delaware, the boundary between Pennsylvania and New Jersey, we understood why Washington had such a tough time of it. It was a solid mass of huge chips of ice. Being a turbulent stream, it had probably broken the ice as it froze, refroze, keeping this up until it had become a solid mass as it were—ice wreckage. There was one whirlpool which had broken through the ice and was whirling downward under the ice.

Riverside Drive afforded us he privilege we missed by darting under the Hudson when we arrived in the city. We were favored with a never ending view of the Hudson-laxy and blue in the morning sun, but adorned on either side not by its native scenery, but completely subordinated by the city—at any rate it was the Hudson. On Broadway Sunday morning all the babies for miles around were being sunned. It was a beaustful morning, sunny and warm, it has been warm ever since we arrived and our room is actually hot, twe keep both windows open all the time).

Eroadway was like a foreign country; the shops were not so different, but the people! Men in derbies and spats, carrying canes. Babies in perambulators, women babbling in harsh Yankee chatter. Men spoke in rasping voices, also in New York speech. It was just cool enough to be pleasant to walk and we walked on and on, crossing where streets shot out from Broadway at an angle. At every one of those angles the esblinade in the center of Briadway seven o'clock; regular prayer mu-vices will be held Wednesday night; on Thursday starting at 10 subject, "Adjustment," Dr. Bergin bringing out the fact that repentance was adjusting one's life for better things. He said it could be done in several ways and closed by asking those present to adjust their lives so that they would do better things for the church, such as teaching and bringing others into the church.
